

MAGYAR NEMZETI BANK

COLLECTOR COIN ISSUANCE PLAN
2023

SUMMARY

The Magyar Nemzeti Bank's (MNB) 2023 collector coin issuance programme contains 28 collector coins in 16 thematic schemes. The bank plans to continue seven series launched earlier. The programme includes one gold, eleven silver and five separate non-ferrous metal collector coins, but to promote the coins' value transferring role as widely as possible, the issued precious metal coins will be accompanied by non-ferrous versions.

The MNB reserves the right to change any aspects of the programme.

Exact data can be obtained from the decrees of the Governor published in the Hungarian Official Journal (Magyar Közlöny) before each issuance.

From 16 January 2023, for 21 days, the Hungarian Mint Ltd., the producer and distributor of collector coins, will offer a booking option for the collector coins until stocks in the booking option last. Except for the silver and non-ferrous metal versions of this year's first issuance, the '200th Anniversary of the Poem of the National Anthem of Hungary' collector coins, which will be available for purchase through the Hungarian Mint Ltd.'s sales channels without the booking option. Detailed information on the booking and purchase schedules can be accessed at www.penzvero.hu.
