

LIST OF PUBLICATIONS

I. List of articles published in our “Market Letter” between 1989 and 1991

- 1–2/1989 Act XXIV of 1988 on foreign investment in Hungary
- 3/1989 Money and credit, 1988
- 4/1989 Monetary policy targets for 1989
- 5/1989 The regulation of foreign trade in 1989
- 6/1989 Treasury bill auctions
- 7/1989 Changes of the securities market in 1988 and trends for further development in 1989
- 8/1989 New possibilities for banks
- 9–10/1989 Monetary policy measures of NBH for improving financial balance
- 11/1989 Broker companies on the Hungarian securities market
- 12/1989 Decentralization of foreign exchange operations in Hungary

*

- 1/1990 Monetary policy for 1990
- 2–3/1990 Act on securities and stock exchange in Hungary
- 4/1990 Meeting of the shareholders of the National Bank of Hungary
- 5/1990 The new Hungarian Government’s economic program
- 6/1990 Performance of the Hungarian economy in the first quarter of 1990
- 7/1990 Foreign borrowing policy of the National Bank of Hungary
- 8–9/1990 Information on the Hungarian government’s program of national revival
- 10/1990 Hungary on the road to privatization
- 11–12/1990 Monetary policy for 1991

*

- 1/1991 Establishment and operation of the Budapest Stock Exchange
A legal background
- 2/1991 Balance of payments and borrowing policy in 1990
- 3/1991 Financing the state budget in 1991
- 4/1991 Decentralization of foreign exchange transactions
- 5/1991 On the forint’s convertibility
- 6/1991 The banking system in Hungary
- 7/1991 Remodelling foreign trade in 1991
- 8/1991 Tourism in Hungary
- 9/1991 Reserves in the banking system
- 10–11/1991 The Law on the Central Bank
- 12/1991 The Law on Financial Institutions and Banking Activities

II. List of articles published in the “Monthly Report” in 1992 (“Selected topics”)

- January Factors determining the development of prices in 1991
and tendencies expected for 1992
- February The 1991 position of public finances
Hungary’s debt management policy
- April–May Relationship between Hungary and the IMF
Relationship between Hungary and the World Bank
- July Statement by Dr. Péter Á. Bod, Governor of the International Monetary Fund for Hungary, at the Annual Meetings of the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank Group

	The first two years of the operation of the Budapest Stock Exchange (June 21, 1990 – June 19, 1992)
August	Enterprise promoting credit facilities
	The role of economic associations with foreign participation in the Hungarian economy
October–	Exchange rate system and exchange rate policy
November	in the period of transition to a market economy
December	Monetary policy for 1993

III. List of articles published in the “Monthly Report” in 1993 (“Selected topics”)

2–3	Price development in 1992 and tendencies expected for 1993 Hungarian foreign trade in 1992 and early in 1993
5–6	Development of Hungary’s international tourism and envisaged tendencies
8–9	New deposit insurance system in Hungary Prudential supervision of banks in Hungary
10	Characteristics of the Hungarian capital market

IV. List of articles published in the “Monthly Report” in 1994 (“Selected topics”)

1	A rising nation – a developing economy (The economic program of the Government of the Republic of Hungary) Can Europe be competitive without the countries of Central and Eastern Europe? (Speech by Professor Péter Ákos Bod, Ph.D., Governor of the National Bank of Hungary, Chairman of the Hungarian Atlantic Council)
2	Development of the financial savings of households in the last few years Banker training in Hungary
4–5	Transition to the market economy – a Hungarian viewpoint (Lecture delivered by Péter Ákos Bod, Ph. D., President of the National Bank of Hungary at the European Bankers’ Conference organized by ICL) Experts from the 1994 monetary and credit policy guidelines The European Economic and Monetary Union from the aspect of a future Hungarian accession
7	Trade development in the first third of 1994 and forecast for this year’s external economic processes Development of tourism Hungary in 1993
8	Direct foreign investment and privatization in Hungary
10	The consolidation of the Hungarian banking system
11	Rebirth of the banking system in Hungary (Presented by Péter Ákos Bod, President of the National Bank of Hungary at the 70th Anniversary Conference of the National Bank of Hungary, Budapest, November 10, 1994) The creation and development of the Hungarian capital market

V. List of articles published in the “Monthly Report” in 1995
 (“Selected topics”)

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 | Experiences of the operation of the Hungarian securities market |
| 2 | The issue of banknotes and coins in Hungary |
| 4 | Monetary policy guidelines for 1995 |
| 5 | Hungary’s deficit financing, national debt management and interest structure |

VI. List of articles published in the “Monthly Report” in 1997
 (“Selected topics”)

- | | |
|----|--|
| 12 | Financial market trends in Hungary in the first three quarters of 1977 |
|----|--|

VII. List of publications in the “NBH Working Papers” series
 (English version)

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 | Foreign direct investment: some theoretical and practical issues |
| 2 | Money laundering based on domestic and international experience |
| 3 | Seignorage and burdens of government debt |
| 4 | Restructuring and Recent Situation of the Hungarian Banking Sector |
| 5 | Repo Markets. Experiences and opportunities in Hungary |
| 6 | Payment Systems and Monetary Operations |

VIII. Quarterly Report on Inflation

- | | |
|-----------|------|
| November | 1998 |
| March | 1999 |
| June | 1999 |
| September | 1999 |
| December | 1999 |
| March | 2000 |
| June | 2000 |
| September | 2000 |

