

LAMFALUSSY LECTURES CONFERENCE

*'New narrative for Europe
(and for the monetary union after the crisis)'*

MONDAY 2 FEBRUARY 2015

Budapest Marriott Hotel

08:15 | REGISTRATION

09:00 | Welcome speech

György Matolcsy, Governor of the Magyar Nemzeti Bank

09:05 | Monetary policy in a genuine European Monetary Union

Benoît Coeuré, Member of the Executive Board of the European Central Bank

09:35 | CESEE 25 years after the fall of the iron curtain – European integration remains a win-win strategy

Ewald Nowotny, Governor of the National Bank of Austria

10:05 | On the value of price stability

Erdem Başçı, Governor of the Central Bank of the Republic of Turkey

10:35 | COFFEE BREAK

11:00 | Reform and prosperity in the monetary union

Carlos da Silva Costa, Governor of the Bank of Portugal

11:30 | On the effectiveness of non-standard monetary policy measures in Slovenia

Boštjan Jazbec, Governor of the Bank of Slovenia

12:00 | Crisis and central banking paradigm

Boris Vujčić, Governor of the Croatian National Bank

12:30 | The independence of monetary policy and the banking union

Erkki Liikanen, Governor of the Bank of Finland

13:00 | LUNCH

14:30 | Panel discussion

Moderator: Csaba Lentner, Professor

Agnès Bénassy-Quéré, Professor CES, Centre d'Economie de la Sorbonne

Dániel Palotai, Executive Director for Monetary Policy, MNB

André Sapir, University Professor, Université libre de Bruxelles

György Szapáry, Ambassador, former Deputy Governor of the MNB

16:00 | Closing remarks

György Matolcsy, Governor of the Magyar Nemzeti Bank

16:15 | CONCLUSION OF THE CONFERENCE