

Professor Lamfalussy Commemorative Conference
'His contribution to economic policy and the birth of the euro'

MONDAY 1 FEBRUARY 2016

Budapest Marriott Hotel

- 08:15 | REGISTRATION
- 09:00 | Commemorative film about Professor Lamfalussy
- 09:10 | Welcome address
György Matolcsy, Governor of the Magyar Nemzeti Bank
- 09:15 | Old and new challenges for 2016 and beyond
Luiz Awazu Pereira da Silva, Deputy General Manager of the Bank for International Settlements
- 09:45 | From Euro to Banking Union – what can we learn from Mr. Lamfalussy?
Ewald Nowotny, Governor of the Österreichische Nationalbank
- 10:15 | Towards completing economic and monetary union
Benoît Cœuré, Member of the Executive Board of the European Central Bank
- 10:45 | COFFEE BREAK
- 11:15 | Navigating in uncharted waters, Alexandre Lamfalussy, the Euro and a Genuine Economic and Monetary Union
Jan Smets, Governor of the National Bank of Belgium
- 11:45 | Greece and the euro crisis: lessons from confidence
Edmond Alphandéry, Former Minister of Economy of France, Chairman of the Euro50 Group
- 12:15 | Lessons from the Euro crisis
Klaus Regling, Managing Director of the European Stability Mechanism
- 12:45 | LUNCH
- 14:30 | Panel discussion
Moderator: György Szapáry, Ambassador, Chief Adviser to the Governor of the MNB
- Quantitative easing: fiscal or monetary policy? National or common?
Daniel Gros, Director of the Centre for European Policy Studies
- A new approach to crisis management in Hungary
Dániel Palotai, Executive Director and Chief Economist of the Magyar Nemzeti Bank
- Was Monetary Union created too early?
Niels Thygesen, Professor of the University of Copenhagen
- 16:00 | Closing remarks
György Matolcsy, Governor of the Magyar Nemzeti Bank